Dear Ashley:

Thank you and the entire CardCom company for your support of MADD's National Youth Summit to Prevent Underage Drinking. Through the Summit and associated activities, literally thousands of young people across the United States understand the dangerous effects of alcohol on a "brain under construction". This knowledge empowers them to speak to parents, teachers and lawmakers about helping eliminate the use of alcohol as a right of passage from adolescence.

I continue to receive notes and e-mails of gratitude to our corporate partners from the facilitators, management team and delegates who attended the Summit. The weekend was truly special.

Very Sincerely,

Iodischake
Director of Corporate Relation
